43. Private family affairs should never be discussed before outsiders.

44. Leave the more comfortable chairs for your elders and for visitors.

45. Try to offer your help when you're a guest—to set or clear the table, carry things, wash dishes or whatever you can help with.
31. Most foods should be eaten with a spoon or fork. Some foods that are dry & not messy may be eaten by picking them up with your fingers. Follow your host's or parent's lead.

32. When taking a serving of food, take the first piece you touch and the piece closest to you.

33. It is kind to "prefer your brethren" and not take the biggest piece for yourself.
7. PRO.14:2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the Lord.

8. Grandpa likes us to answer those who are older or in authority with "Yes, Sir" and "Yes, Ma'am", or "No, Sir", and "No, Ma'am".

9. We should try to speak clearly to others and answer, "Yes", not use American slang, "Yeah".
4. We are God's children, Jesus' Family and Grandpa's good fruits, so let's act like it!

5. The expression on your face, your appearance and your posture all say something about you!

6. PRO.15:13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.
16. If you don't hear or understand what is said when someone speaks to you, ask, "I'm sorry?", "Pardon?" or "Excuse me, please?" Or, "What did you say, please?"

17. "Please" and "Thank you" and "You're welcome" should often be on your lips. Such expressions are kind and considerate.

18. If one member of the family begins to tell a story you should let him finish it without interrupting him or trying to correct it or tell it differently.
19. Be a good listener, give the other person a chance to talk. Avoid contradicting, interrupting, whispering, and correcting errors unnecessarily.

20. If you must say something while someone else is speaking, wait until the other person has paused, and say, "Excuse me, please," before you speak.

21. Keep your hands clean. Wash them before sitting down to meals and always after a visit to the toilet.
12. It doesn't take money to clean a house! It just takes elbow grease and a little hard work!
13. Cleanliness is a good witness and testimony.

14. There's no excuse for dirt!
15. Better no Home than a dirty one!

16. Flies, mosquitoes, cockroaches, mice and rats are all filthy, disease-carrying enemies and must be gotten rid of!
17. Keep fingers away from your eyes and mouth. They touch many dirty things throughout the day and can carry germs and make you sick.

18. It is not safe to sit directly on the dirty ground or even the floor of your Home without a protective floor cushion or pad under your bottom.

19. Avoid kissing on the mouth, as it's a sure way to catch germs, sickness and disease from others.
20. If you get a cut, scratch or sore, wash it well with clean water, then disinfect it with baby cologne or alcohol.

21. Always wash your hands: 1) Before eating or handling food, 2) after going to the toilet, 3) after playing outside.

22. Everyone should have and use their own personal washcloth and towel. Use one side of your towel to dry your face and the other side for the rest of your body.
33. You are what you eat, and if you eat poison you're going to turn into poison yourself!

34. 1CO.3:16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

35. Do you always remember to pray over not only your food but your drinks? The Lord not only prayed for the bread, but He also prayed for the wine.
