

1. In the first Letter in this series I shared with you a number of prophecies in which the Lord spoke of His desire for us to be closer to Him, more intimate, to have a deeper, more loving relationship with Him. He expressed His desire for us to feel toward Him the way He feels toward us! He loves us so deeply and wants to spend time with us, and He wants us to do the same with Him!

2. He said, "I am as a Lover who waits in the side room." "For I say unto you, seek first the Kingdom of God, the arms of your true Lover." "And you can then tell them of Me, of your Lover." It should not be surprising that the Lord would call Himself our Lover, as in the Word He calls the Church—us and all those who are joined to Him through salvation—His Bride. And of course a bride and bridegroom—a husband and wife—should be lovers!

3. Dad taught us that "marriage is a type of the spiritual union of the believing Bride with Christ" (ML #332C:84). Also, that "God in His wisdom has created this sexual union, this husband and wife relationship, this lover-and-loved intercourse, to be a marvelous picture, an illustration in the physical of your spiritual relationship with Him and your union with your Heavenly Bridegroom!" (ML #1188:78).

4. You'll remember that the Lord also said, "They must learn to rejoice at My voice as they would rejoice at the voice of their lover!" (See "Loving Jesus!—Part 1") Just as we love to listen to someone that we're deeply in love with, He says we should rejoice at His voice, both in His written Word, as well as in all the other ways that He speaks to us, like in His still small voice, the burdens He gives us, Godly counsel, prophecy, etc. When you are with someone that you really love, don't you just love to talk with them, hear them, kiss and caress them? Don't you enjoy their company almost more than anything else? Well, the Lord is saying that's how we should be with Him!

5. Jesus wants to be more than a friend. He wants us to love Him with all our heart and all our soul and all our mind and all our strength—with everything there is within us! If we love Him this way we won't just think of Him as a friend, but He'll be our lover as well. He wants us to crave Him, His Word, His voice, His love. He wants us to feel a burning desire for Him, a desperate need to be with Him and to communicate with Him.

6. The Lord is looking for us to draw closer to Him, to be more intimate, more loving, to crave Him and all that He has for us. The following prophecy says it much better than I ever could.

Those Who Love Me Most,
Show Me the Most Love!

7. (Jesus speaking:) I love your love! I love your kisses and your caresses! I love the sweet things that you whisper in My ear. I love your desire for Me. The more that you desire Me, the more I desire you. For as I have said, draw nigh unto God and He will draw nigh unto you.

8. I love all My children; every one is dear and precious to Me. But I spend more time with those who want Me and who love Me and who create a vacuum which I can fill; who lie in the bed with Me and call for Me and woo Me. When you woo Me, I will come.

9. When you are stopping and calling, kissing and caressing, it creates a vacuum in the Spirit which I will fill. For as I hear your voice calling Me, saying, "Come, come. I want You! I need You! I love You!" so is My attention drawn to you. And so I come to you and love you and speak to you and hold you and caress you and fulfill your need.

10. Seek Me and you will find Me, ask Me and I will be there. For they that love Me most follow closest, and they who love Me most show Me the most love. And they that love Me shall have the most of Me. (End of message from Jesus.)

11. (Mama:) If we want more of Jesus, then we need to give Him more of us! If we want His love, then we must give Him ours! He wants us to show Him love by taking time with Him. And if we do, it creates a vacuum that He will fill. He wants us to desire Him, and the more we do, the more He desires us! Imagine, the Lord really wants us to love Him richly, fully and deeply! That's how He loves us! Hallelujah!

The Bridegroom Cometh!

12. One night after an extended period of singing praise songs and love songs to the Lord and crying out to Him, telling Him of our love for Him, He said some wonderful things to us!

13. (Jesus speaking:) Behold, I have heard your prayers, and I have seen your tears, and I will heal you. I have heard your songs of love, your words of love and endearment unto Me. I have heard your words of praise and of giving glory unto Me. I have heard you listening to and absorbing My Words and turning them into prayers unto Me. These have come before Me as incense, as beautiful smells that remind Me of you and of your love and of your praise. It draws My heart near to yours. For as I love to speak to you, so I love it when you together speak to Me. As you think it is precious when I speak to you, so I feel it is precious when you speak to Me!

14. Oh that My children everywhere would speak such words of love, such words of praise, and would sing unto Me such songs of love and of devotion, and would sing from their whole hearts, as you have done this night. And, lo, how I would empower them for their love! How I would greatly rejoice in the words of praise that they would say and sing unto Me. For, oh, how I wish to teach My children to seek Me desperately with their whole hearts, and to love Me wholly!

15. In doing so, they will give Me great pleasure, and I will give to them great gifts. For if they give, they shall receive. If they give Me the things that I wish, I will pour forth unto them the things that they wish. For does not the wife who gives praise and adoration and love to her husband receive of him good gifts and great love? So it is with Me.

16. When I walked the Earth, My disciples said, "Lord, teach us how to pray." And I say unto you, teach your disciples how to pray. Teach them how to praise. Teach them to commune with Me, with the communion that I wish to have. The come-union, the love-union, the praise-union, the glory-union, the worship-union. The loving union of a man and a wife.

17. I am teaching you. Slowly am I leading you step by step as this mystery unfolds, to teach My people the ways of love, as a mother teaches a young virgin before her wedding night. And those that teach the virgin well bring great joy to her bridegroom. So teach My virgins well, that you may bring great joy unto Me. Be not ashamed and be not afraid of what they will think, for I will work in their hearts and help them to understand. I have taught you these things, and you must be faithful to teach others, that they too can come to know Me in a new and special way.

18. Be not afraid to let them hear the words of love and the ecstasies of your love that you have poured forth unto Me! Yes, it will be humbling, but though it is humbling for the man and the woman to be naked one with another, it is soon forgotten in the ecstasies of lovemaking. So shall the humbling of the words and the exposure to all be soon forgotten when you rejoice that they are loving Me, and as they rejoice in their love with Me and in the fruits of that love.

19. As a bridegroom looks forward to the day of his marriage, so I look forward to the day when My children will call unto Me in a new way, and will cry out to Me in desire. And oh, I shall rejoice! I will burst forth with great love! And I will bestow My gifts upon My children for their great love for Me. For they will be giving and giving and giving unto Me, and I will be giving and giving and giving unto them. This is the beginning of a great new marriage, and My Bride shall rejoice in the ecstasies of My love!

20. So do not hold back. Give unto them! Give unto them all that I have shown you, and in due season you shall reap a great and mighty harvest because of your faithfulness. For as you two have loved Me and have received the seeds of My love, so shall it bring forth great fruit unto the children of David.

21. The world and the church are going to stand back in awe, and they are going to scoff and say, "The children haven't changed!" But I say unto you, the children have changed, because they are no longer children, they are brides! They are going to be experienced lovers, and they are going to revel in the ecstasies of My love!

22. So come, let us love together! Let us revel together! For you are My Bride and I am your Husband, and the bed of our marriage is undefiled. And as the husband and the wife learn the ways of love together, and as they discover new and exciting things to do one to another, so shall we learn new ways to excite one another, and to pour forth to one another, and to show one another great love. Oh, what a marriage! What love we shall have, and what love we will show the world together.

23. So prepare yourself, the Bridegroom cometh! Trim your lamps, yea, trim your lamps and be ready and waiting! We shall have a great feast and we shall have great love, and we shall have a great, great, great big orgy together! This is My call to all the young virgins: Come unto Me. I want to marry you. I want you in the bed of My love. Do not think, "Oh, there are so many," for you are all one. I love each of you, and I will ravish each of you, and I will ravish all of you! And we shall rejoice together in a great love one for another!

24. So I'm coming! And it's coming! And you'll be coming! And we'll all be coming together! So come! Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest--rest in the bed of My love. And through this rest and through this love there will be great strength and great fruit. For soon we will be naked together in the bed of love! So hear My call and heed My call. Be ready! (End of message from Jesus.)

25. (Mama:) What a beautiful, powerful and wonderful message! Wow! How sexy! I can't get over how much the Lord is trying to show us the importance of loving Him. It's just amazing to see things as He sees them. God is anything but conservative! He's radical! and He doesn't seem to care if people know He's wild and free!

26. Like Dad has said, the Lord is a sexy God! "If you can accommodate this new wine without asking why or trying to analyze its ingredients, God has such thrills and intoxication of the Spirit in store for you that you will be glad you drank it without question! And you'll be whisked off into a world which you never dreamed existed, where you'll enjoy the very wonders of total intimacy with a sexy, naked God Himself in a wild orgy of the Spirit, as His totally surrendered Bride!" (ML #286:23).

27. See, it's nothing new—even the Lord talking about us having a spiritual orgy with Him—it's been there all the time! The Lord just wants us to put it into practice. He wants us to love Him, to desire to be with Him like we desire to be with a sexy lover. He loves us, and we love Him, so let's learn to love Him the way He wants to be loved!

28. May God bless you and help you to spend good loving time with Him—time in His Word, praising Him, telling Him you love Him and letting Him fuck you with His Word!
